

Draft: Community pharmacies can conduct rapid testing for diagnosing SARS-CoV-2 infection

Community pharmacies and rural community pharmaceutical offices can carry out rapid antigenic testing activities to diagnose SARS-CoV-2 infection, according to a draft order published on the website of the Health Ministry.

According to the draft, the County or Bucharest Public Health Directorate issues a temporary rapid antigenic testing agreement for the diagnosis of SARS-CoV-2 infection, in electronic format.