

DLA Piper announces the promotion of Florin Țineghe as a Real Estate Partner within the Bucharest Office

International law firm DLA Piper announces the promotion of Florin Țineghe to partnership, starting with 1 May 2025. This marks a significant milestone for DLA Piper's team in Romania, extending it to eleven partners.

Florin is promoted as a partner in the Real Estate practice, specializing in planning, permitting and construction.

He brings nearly two decades of strong experience to the Real Estate practice, where he has been instrumental in driving major projects and delivering results for clients. His leadership and dedication have made him an essential part and an extremely valuable asset of the team.

Throughout his career, Florin has demonstrated proficiency in handling complex real estate transactions. He has guided esteemed real estate investors through intricate acquisitions, sensitive disposals, complex permitting and construction aspects and comprehensive financing processes. His deep understanding of the real estate, energy, and asset financing sectors has been invaluable to clients.

Florin's practice encompasses a wide range of services, including structuring sophisticated real estate deals, managing construction law and permitting processes, advising on high-value lease agreements, and navigating the intricacies of title insurance and litigation. His ability to provide strategic, solution-oriented advice has earned him recognition as a trusted advisor. In recent years, Florin has been deeply involved in the renewable energy sector, assisting clients with strategic planning and permitting for solar and wind projects, land rights, and construction issues.

With Florin's new role as a partner, our clients can expect a higher level of personalized service and strategic guidance in planning, permitting and construction with unmatched expertise and strategic insights to navigate complex regulatory landscapes.

Commenting on the promotion, Marian Dinu, Country Managing Partner, said: "Florin's promotion to partner showcases his extensive experience and steadfast dedication. He has been a core member of our real-estate team for many years, bringing clients the right mix of assurance and creativity, and we are confident that he will continue to drive our firm's growth and success."

Florin Țineghe added: "I am honored by this promotion and grateful for the opportunity to continue serving our clients from the partner position at DLA Piper. This advancement reflects our commitment to excellence in the Real Estate sector. I look forward to continuing to build on our and our clients' success in Romania, and I am confident in our ability to achieve great things together."
