

RTPR advises EMSA Capital on its exit from Aplast

RTPR has assisted private equity fund EMSA Capital in relation to the successful closing of the sale of its 100% shareholding in Aplast to Extruplast, an important local company specialised in design, manufacturing and distribution of PVC profiles and related systems for windows and doors. Aplast is a Romanian manufacturer of PVC windows and doors, active for over 25 years in the thermal insulation joinery market.

The team of lawyers involved in this project was made of Alina Stavaru (Partner), Cezara Urzica (Counsel), Andrei Tosa (Senior Associate) and Andrei Nicolae (Associate). The RTPR mandate covered legal assistance in relation to all phases of the transaction.

“We are honoured to have worked alongside EMSA Capital in this important transaction for the construction materials market. The excellent collaboration with the EMSA Capital team was essential for managing the legal complexities and successfully completing the exit. We would like to thank them for their trust and congratulate them on this favourable result”, said Alina Stavaru, Partner of RTPR.
